Re: United States v. Foster Cooley
22 Cr. 651 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams:

I write on behalf of my client Foster Cooley without objection from Assistant United States Attorney Andrew Chan and United States Pretrial Officer Deshawn Bostic, to respectfully request that the Court modify the conditions of the bond to allow Mr. Cooley to travel with his mother to the District of Hawaii from July 3 through 9, 2024 to attend a close family friend's wedding.

Mr. Cooley has remained on pretrial supervision since his arrest in 2022. Since then, Mr. Cooley has remained compliant with the terms of his supervised release and continues to be an active participant in YAOP. Given Mr. Cooley's history of compliance while under pretrial supervision, the defense requests Mr. Cooley be afforded permission to travel to Hawaii with his family.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
